

Aldwin Terence Christian

February 11, 1955 - January 8, 2022

OBITUARY

Aldwin Terence Christian (affectionally called “Alvin” by his family & close friends) was born on February 11, 1955, to Rev. Hazel C. Christian and Nancy Lee (Scott) Christian in Fort Smith, Arkansas. His Christian training began at home, and at St James Baptist Church in Fort Smith, Arkansas, where he was baptized at an early age.

At the age of 12, Aldwin moved North with his family to Benton Harbor, Michigan, where he attended Hull Jr. High School, and later graduated from Benton Harbor High School. While in high school, Aldwin studied Auto Mechanics, and after graduating, held several jobs in Auto Body Shops as a Jr. Mechanic. Aldwin later moved to Ypsilanti, Michigan where he continued cultivating his skills.

Aldwin loved cars and enjoyed working on them. He loved playing pool, listening to jazz, cooking on the grill, and going out to eat. He was an avid weightlifter; enjoyed ice fishing; and later, driving semi-trucks for his last employer. He worked until he could no longer drive trucks, due to his failing health.

Aldwin united with The Bible Church of Ypsilanti, Michigan in 1999, and for the last five to six years of his life, served as a faithful member, attending Sunday School, Wednesday night Bible Study, participating in the men’s ministry, the men’s prayer group, the men’s choir, supported the Right to Life ministry, served as driver for the Vacation Bible School, served in the Soul Fishers Ministries, and even repaired cars for many members of his church family. He peacefully departed this life from labor to reward at his home on January 8, 2022.

Aldwin was preceded in death by his parents: Rev. Hazel C. Christian and Nancy Lee (Scott) Christian; his paternal grandparents: Robert Lee Christian and Lula Christian; his maternal grandparents: John Calvin Scott and Willie Estella (Porter) Scott.

Aldwin leaves to cherish his memory his four daughters: Henrietta Denice Jones of Benton Harbor, Michigan; Ty (Donavon) Weaver-Morrow of Ypsilanti, Michigan; Kamesha (Lonnie) Dong of Houston, Texas; Tamika Clark of Dallas Texas; one son: Terrence Wallace of Kalamazoo, Michigan; three brothers: Hazel Christian, Jr. (Punch) of Kalamazoo, Michigan; Elder Samuel Christian of Richland, Michigan; and K'John (Jody) Christian of Holland, Michigan; four sisters: Lula (Christian) Jackson, Min. Audree (Christian) Rodgers, Tamblyn Christian, Nancy Christian, all of Ypsilanti, Michigan; and Mary Christian of Fredericksburg, Virginia; fourteen grandchildren; one great-grandson; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, his church family, and other relatives and friends.

“ I am Aldwin's (Alvin) OLDEST sister (Sista), Lula E. Christian-Jackson and I will always remember him as stubborn yet caring. He never strayed from what he felt until he was forced into the position. He portrayed the older brother and uncle to me and my children though I'm older than him and my children and I talked about what we will ALWAYS REMEMBER, whether it be an expression, an emotion, laugh, or a characteristic. I will miss our summer adventures we took before he took I'll. Brother your purpose here has been filled and you NO LONGER HAVE SUFFER. REST IN PEACE.

I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR TELLING ME TO MAKE SURE I TAKE MY VITAMINS. I HAVE BEEN DOING IT EVERY SINCE. LOVE. UNTIL WE SEE EACH OTHER AGAIN, SAY HELLO TO ALL MY LOVES ONES YOU RUN INTO.

Uncle Aldwin/Uncle Alvin as I called you all my life. The Most High has called you home for you have finished your course. You accepted Jesus as Your Saviour and stayed on the battlefield of the Lord's. Uncle Alvin you now walk the streets of Gold as you stroll along the Pearly of Heaven to your new home the mansion that and went to prepare for you. UNC, you're no longer in the flesh but have been changed in a twinkle of an eye to be able to put on your Robe and tell the story of how you made it over. You no longer have to suffer the trails and tribulations of your former life. You now sit at the feet of your Saviour to collect your Crowns. I love you UNC and will miss you until the Most High has collected my every tear as He has yours for He knows the number of hairs on our heads. Uncle Alvin, until that day, rejoice with our love ones who have went home to the Father before you.

Love your oldest neice Melissa/Mimi Smith

“ I want to sincerely offer my condolence's to the family of Bro. Aldwin. He had a long struggle with his health issues but he was always hopeful that he would find the healing that he needed. I know that now he is with his heavenly Father and he no longer has pain, crying or sickness. Wendy W. Blackman (Bible Church Member)
